Surfing Through Chalon Orientation, New Students Learn About The Mount

A black and white photograph showing a man and a young girl standing outdoors. The man, on the left, is wearing a light-colored short-sleeved shirt and dark trousers. The girl, on the right, is wearing a dark long-sleeved shirt and dark trousers with a light-colored stripe down the side. They are both holding a large, rectangular box between them. The box has the word 'Forex' printed on it in a large, bold font, with a registered trademark symbol. Below 'Forex', there is smaller text that is partially legible, including 'Forex' and 'Forex'. The background shows some foliage and a building with a window.

A black and white photograph capturing a moment during a relay race. A line of young women is positioned on a running track, each holding a baton. They are dressed in casual athletic wear, including sweaters, jackets, and trousers. The woman in the foreground is in a ready stance, holding the baton. Behind her, several other women are lined up, some looking towards the camera and others looking ahead. The background is filled with a large crowd of spectators, mostly young people, standing and watching the event. The scene is set outdoors on a track with visible lane markings.

New students are welcomed to the Mount by Orientation counselors Ester Razon and Heather Del Villar.

Dancing the night away Maria Herrera and Amy Wells enjoy the music of the Tijuana Dogs.

On a hot day, ice cream is always a treat. A root beer float, in a MSMC commuter mug is presented to incoming students by Lucie Spencer at the Alumnae Mugging.

Enjoying a special night by the poolside, new students are treated to "Grease" at the Smartbodies Jamboree.

The Mount Community Learned About Women Entrepreneurs Of The Asian Pacific Rim During Horizons Day '99.

A black and white photograph capturing a bustling outdoor market scene. In the foreground, a young woman with dark hair, wearing a dark sweater with white stripes on the sleeves and a white skirt, is intently looking at a book or brochure. Behind her, a large crowd of people is scattered across the area, many of whom are browsing items displayed on long tables covered with white cloths. A large, white, open umbrella stands prominently in the background, providing shade. The setting appears to be a courtyard or plaza, with a building featuring several arched windows visible in the distance. The overall atmosphere is one of a busy, community-oriented event.

Panelist Julie Anne Hennessy, International Trade specialist, U.S. Dept. of Commerce addresses the crowd as Bee Lavery, CEO of BCL International and Executive Protocol International and Vicky Cayetano, First Lady of Hawaii look on.

Giving the keynote address, Vicky Cayetano educates the Mount about women entrepreneurs of the Asian Pacific Rim.

Dancing in a circle, FASA swing their hats to the center while during a "hat" dance.

Bowing at the end of their hula, Na Pua O Ka 'Aina basked in the audiences' applause.

I want to thank all the people who have helped out in the construction of this book. I would especially like to thank Monica Long, our advisor, for all of her help and guidance throughout the year. I would also like to thank Ana Verdin for all her assistance in rounding up photos and information from Doheny. I feel that this year's book has some of the best representation of both campuses.

Lastly, thank you to Willow, Nikki, Millicent, Erin, Megan and Sandra for all your dedication and patience. You are very appreciated.

Y su amor.

I love you, Mom

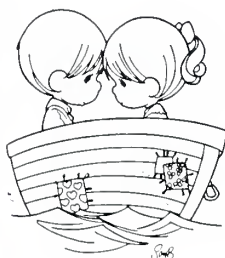

My life has been blessed with you in it,
 You fill my life with comfort:
 You have an unselfish way of always
 Lending me your ear.
 You are strong enough to offer your shoulder to cry on,
 And you are willing to be honest
 Though, at times, the truth may hurt.
 Most importantly, you have filled my life with love.
 We feel each other's pain and take pride in each other's joy.
 You are the most wonderful people I have ever met.
 Thank you for the laughter, tears, and memories!
 I love you!

NEW FRIENDS AND OLD FRIENDS

Make new friends, but keep the old;
Those are silver, these are gold.
New-made friendships, like new wine,
Age will mellow and refine.
Friendships that have stood the test—
Time and change—are surely best;
Brow may wrinkle, hair grow gray,
Friendship never knows decay.
For 'mid old friends, tried and true,
Once more we our youth renew.
But old friends, alas! May die,
New friends must their place supply.
Cherish friendship in your breast—
New is good, but old is best;
Make new friends, but keep the old;
Those are silver, these are gold.
